

Directive No. 6/2013

of the Rector of Slovak Medical University in Bratislava on the repeat subject enrolment

This directive defines the procedure of repeat subject enrolment in the further part of study

Bratislava 2013

I.

The student receiving the grade of FX in any subject with the prescribed assessment of „S“ (examination) or failing to meet the conditions for receiving „PH“ (continuous assessment) in the preceding part of study in accordance with the study plan of the study programme, is obliged to submit a request in writing for a repeat enrolment of a compulsory and/or compulsorily optional subject to the dean of the faculty by means of the study department of the faculty within 10 days at the latest after the end of examination period within summer semester.

II.

The dean of the faculty can award an approval for maximum two subjects related to the student 's request for a repeat enrolment with the exception of practical tuition subjects. Simultaneously, the dean defines the deadline of gaining assessment and appropriate number of credits for the given subject. The dean of the faculty by means of the study department of the faculty is obliged to answer in writing the student 's request by the beginning of enrolment at the latest.

III.

The study department is obliged to inform the related pedagogic bodies of the list of students whose requests for repeat subjects enrolment have been approved by the dean immediately after the end of enrolments.

IV.

The higher education pedagogue whose subject is enrolled repeatedly posts a sufficient number of dates for examination completions or continuous assessment acquirement within the above stated terms.

V.

The student is entitled for one regular and one retake examination related to a repeat subject enrolment. In the case, the student fails to gain relevant assessment in a regular and retake examination, his or her study is terminated by § 66 sec. 1 letter c) of the law 131/2002 Coll. on higher education.

The Directive becomes effective on the day of its signing.

Bratislava, 16th of September 2013

Dr. h. c. prof. PhDr. Dana Farkašová, Csc.
rector