

The congress on Research Integrity

The scientific conference on the topic „Research Integrity“ was carried on at Slovak Medical University in Bratislava on March 23rd – 26th 2022 in the frame of the project „Doctoral Programmes in Public Health and Social Science“ (DPPHSS).

The learning objective of the conference was to raise the attention of both students and supervisors to the negative aspects associated with the violation of the research integrity. It is a way to be active in upgrading the quality of the third level of university education PhD Programme in Public Health and Social Sciences. Let’s start from ourselves. The participants were informed about the wave of the violation of research integrity related to the authorship of the thesis, about the quality differences of PhD thesis prepared under the umbrella of research projects funded by external Grant agencies. Further about the role of supervisors in inclusive and participatory processes important for development of atmosphere conducive to effective learning.

The participants of the conference were representatives of the Yerevan State Medical University (Armenia), Yerevan State University (Armenia), Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University (Georgia), The University of Georgia (Georgia), University of Gothenburg (Sweden), University of Applied Sciences Upper Austria (Austria), Babes-Bolyai University Cluj-Napoca (Romania) and Slovak Medical University Bratislava (Slovakia).

The conference was opened on Thursday March 24th 2022 by the Welcome speech of the Dean of the Faculty of Public Health, Slovak Medical University Bratislava MVDr. Dagmar Zeljenkova PhD, followed by presentations of the students, supervisors and leading personalities of the Faculty of Public Health. The programme of the conference was closed by the meeting of the coordinators from participating academic institutions in DPPHSS.

Prof. Ing. Ivan Čižnár PhD, DrSc., the coordinator of the DPPHSS project together with MSc. Mária Bartušová, PhD, MSc. Nina Kotlebová, PhD and MSc. Katarína Trajlínková worked as the organizing committee and contributed significantly to the success of the conference and presentation of the Faculty of Public Health, Slovak Medical University in Bratislava to the European academic community.

More information about the project can be found on the official project website:

<https://dpphss.am/>

Pictures: International team of the project DPPHSS